Guruji Sundar is a rarest of the rarest flowering in human consciousness. He is one among the masses leading a life of a normal householder, yet attained the pinnacle of wisdom. He has hidden himself thoroughly that only a highly evolved seeker can spot him. His statements are direct, profound and not just meant for the current generations, but also for the future where his words will definitely increase the inner fire and reveal the highest truth in simple language. He is a pregnant cloud waiting to unburden his WISDOM to the entire humanity.

He founded Aathman Awareness Centre (a non-profit universal spiritual organization) in 2002 for the purpose of showing the way to seekers all around the world. His aim is to make as many flowerings flower with awareness in the garden of humanity. One of the purposes of AAC is also to become a “spiritual university” where people from all over the world get enlightened irrespective of the religious paths they follow.

He also has created several meditation courses for the benefit of humanity and is a prolific writer. One of the visions of AAC includes creating a database which can be of help to any true seeker and which contains the keys for true wisdom. This magazine is a step in this direction.

AAC was the first organization to bring out the significance of Jeeva Samadhis of saints in India by performing renovation to dilapidated Jeeva Samadhi shrines. In spiritual world, it is very rare for a person to attain Jeeva Samadhi. Jeeva Samadhis are true monuments which need to be preserved. If Jeeva Samadhis are worshipped properly with total reverence to the saint, the humanity will blossom and flower forever.

Guruji's Golden Nuggets

- ◆ Those who suffer a lot in their younger days will have a joyous and peaceful life in their later stages.
- ◆ I stand as a live example for my quote.
- ◆ Those who always point their finger at others for their sinful act can never be able to correct themselves. From my younger days 'I' always held myself responsible for all my sinful acts.
- ◆ Even when you do negative karmas and if you can still hear the inner pleading of your divine heart then definitely one day you will come out of your sinful acts.
- ◆ Without knowing and without exploring the negative side of your mind, you can never reach the saintly hood state.
- ◆ Sinner (or) Saint their being are always divine

Guruji's Golden Nuggets

- ◆ The moment you really taste the enlightenment, you become free from all your bondage.
- ◆ In the seeking and searching for the truth, you are not alone. Your seeking is not only yours. All your ancestors banking their hope on you and they also take part in your seeking and they also help you in their own way.
- ◆ Mere tasting the enjoyment of enlightenment is not enough.
- ◆ Your tasting of enlightenment can happen in the presence of 'HH'. But it will be mere sighting of the soul experience only.
- ◆ When the enlightenment experience becomes permanent in your spiritual life then only you can claim yourself that you have become enlightened.
- ◆ Enlightenment without the death of 'I' is not a first rate enlightenment.
- ◆ Self-effacing the pseudo 'I' in the fire of tapas is the must for high quality enlightenment.
- ◆ Those who taste the experience of enlightenment without effacing their identity can always lose their experience in the sands of time.
- ◆ They can become sinners also (or) they can turn their back to spirituality also.
- ◆ Saints can be termed as the ones whose enlightenment becomes permanent in their daily life.
- ◆ Saints are the ones who have become "God" in their own temple
- ◆ For all seekers of truth, they carry the temple with them. But "God" is yet to arrive
- ◆ My dear seekers die while living, then you will never die!
